Missionary Moment

SHARING A MESSAGE OF HOPE

(Southeast Asia) Many of our Southern Baptist workers have a calling to minister to women trapped by prostitution and human trafficking. They are grateful to share in this ministry with national believers. One of these believers is HASAN* who has been walking through a red-light district for 11 years, sharing her faith. Hasan says that many of the women have a desire for money that obscures Christ's calling. One prostitute accepted Christ but refuses to leave her lifestyle until she has saved enough money to move to her home village. Though few women in this district have accepted Christ and left the business, Hasan and other Christian workers continue to bring the message of hope.
