Beth Moore Ladies Bible Study:

"Is it working? Your belief system, that is. Is it really working? God's intention all along has been for the believer's life to work. From divine perspective toward terrestrial turf, God meant for his children to succeed. . . Are our Christian lives successful? Are they achieving and experiencing what Scripture said they would? In a recent sermon my son-in-law preached, Curt told us the only way we were going to impact the world and the next generation is to prove that our faith in Christ is real and that it works. For countless Christians I'm convinced it's real. My concern is whether or not we have the fruit to suggest it works."—

Missionary Moment

WORSHIP IN A HALL CLOSET

(East Asia) A ministry team in East Asia lived on a college campus and met in a hallway storage room to worship together. The closet was covered in coal dust and housed old boxes. A single light bulb hung from the ceiling. The group was careful to sing quietly, because Christian witness by foreigners was not welcome. One Sunday, a team member's mother was visiting and attended the service. Tears rolled down her cheek. She said this worship service, in a hall closet, had been the most meaningful one in her life. Thank you, Southern Baptists, for giving so that more will worship our Lord— even in closets.

Bible reference & statement: PHILIPPIANS 4:6-8

When we make requests of God in prayer, we are more conscious of God's giving and our dependence upon Him. Our faithful giving shows gratitude to God and verifies the sincerity of our prayer requests.

Happy Birthday!
