Missionary Moment: Being Respected

(Jordan) DIANE BUTLER* travels the sandy roads of the Middle East to reach Bedouins with physical and spiritual healing. As a nurse, she is respected for the care and training she offers this nomadic people group. After 19 years of living among the people, thanks to the Cooperative Program, she enjoys acceptance and love by building authentic friendships and meeting physical needs. Sandy* is one of Diane's best friends. Though not yet a believer, Sandy has spent hours hearing Bible stories. Diane is grateful she can point Sandy and other Muslims toward Christ.

Happy Birthday!
