Missionary Moment: A Living Relationship with Jesus

(Connecticut) Before coming to Connecticut, RILEY PRATHER was a student pastor in rural Oklahoma. He had always told his kids to follow Jesus into the unknown. He just never expected the “unknown” to be the under-served state of Connecticut. As a church planting family, Riley and his wife KASSIE tell those they meet of the freedom found through a relationship with Jesus. Though many are religious, the concept of a living relationship with Jesus is foreign. Less than 2 percent of Riley’s mission field considers themselves to be born-again Christians. Your gifts through the Cooperative Program can help change this. Pray that those who are hungry will choose relationship with Jesus, the Bread of Life. Bible Reference and Statement: James 1:22 It is true—evidence that we have been instructed by God’s Word is seen in the way we apply God’s truths in our daily lives. One obvious truth in the Bible is that God’s people should give generously and gratefully.

Happy Birthday!
