Missionary Moment: Equipping Leaders

FRED CREASON, a former MK in Ethiopia and PK in Georgia, knew at an early age that God's call on his life was as a preacher. He began practicing that call at age 17. In 1992, that call led him to Wyoming. Today he is the director of the Wyoming Southern Baptist Center for Leadership Development, which is a diploma-granting school sponsored by Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary. Because of your generous contributions through the Cooperative Program, numerous pastors and church planters have been trained to produce healthy, thriving churches and church plants. Pray that God will continue to so equip the pastors and planters that Wyoming so desperately needs.
