Missionary Moment: Melt the Hearts of Stone

(Massachusetts) ANDREW BELL helps lead a church plant in a suburb of Boston. One of the suspects of the Boston Marathon bombing was found hiding very near his church. His church is young, representing a good cross-section of Boston. Many are highly educated and are studying or teaching at Harvard, MIT or Wellesley. At least 46 percent of Bostonians claim no religion at all, and many are suspicious of, if not hostile toward, evangelical Christianity. The universities have created a culture of pluralism that rejects the Gospel's message of faith in God alone. As you give sacrificially through the Cooperative Program, pray the Holy Spirit will melt hearts of stone so the seed of the Gospel can take root.
