Missionary Moment

At a busy Arab market, MIKE couldn't carry his son, LUKE, a 10-year-old with Down syndrome, any further. Setting Luke down on a step, Mike watched as one man, then another, and soon a crowd gathered around Luke. Mike's translator explained that the second man's son also had Down syndrome and had died, so seeing Luke on the same spot where his son used to sit provided comfort to the community. Luke was suddenly hoisted onto a man's shoulders and the crowd cheered as Luke raised his fists in joy. According to Mike, "God has such a passion for His name to be known ... that He gave us this child 10 years ago because He knew he would reach these people. ... We would have never known how God could use Luke unless we went." Pray for Mike today. 2 Peter 3:17-18

Happy Birthday!
