Children's Church and Nursery & Workers Needed

Missionary Moment: A Feeling of Desperation

(Central Asia) Encounters with local women have left MARCI DAWSON* with a feeling of desperation for God to work in their hearts. On one occasion, she had finished eating lunch with a household of village women and was talking over steaming cups of green tea spiced with cardamom. The ladies began talking about their ritual prayer done five times a day. Muslims believe there is power in reciting the kalimah, a confession of faith that states, "There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is his messenger." Your giving through the Cooperative Program will help break through the darkness for these women.
