Missionary Moments: Serving the Deaf in South Asia

[Deaf] Abhay, a deaf man and a Hindu, left his home in South Asia to study at Gallaudet University in the U.S. He became friends with deaf American Christians who tried to share their faith with him. Abhay rebuffed their efforts and eventually returned to South Asia as a committed Hindu. Then he met and became friends with a deaf American man named DANNY*, a Christian worker serving the Deaf in South Asia. Your gifts through the Cooperative Program helped Danny learn how to share Bible stories in Abhay's own sign language. Danny used this training to communicate the gospel to him, and Abhay chose to give his life to Christ and leave his Hindu beliefs.
