Missionary Moment: Faithfulness, Not Rewards

[Southeast Asia] MARK and LISA PATENAUDE have faithfully served on the mission field for more than 18 years, but have seen few new believers. Lisa shared a poignant story about praying and lamenting the lack of response among her neighbors. She felt God say to her, "Are you only going to serve Me if there's fruit? Is this about the 'fruit' or is it about Me?" Lisa said this insight helped her to understand they are serving among a hard-to-reach people out of obedience to God. For the Patenaudes, who are supported through the Cooperative Program, their ministry is about faithfulness and not the rewards.
