Lottie Moon Week of Prayer & Christmas Offering Today, Dec. 2nd – Next Sunday, Dec. 9th

The 2012 theme is "BE His heart, His hands, His voice." Each of us and our churches are continually called to take the next step in our obedience. Ultimately we are to make disciples, no matter the cost. But our own discipleship is first about dying to self so that Christ might be glorified through us – even "to the ends of the earth." Prayer Guide and Offering Envelope in your bulletin. Please pray about what God would have you to give.

Living Water for a poor village in South Asia

"CAL and MAGGIE HARDISON" could nearly cry a river in South Asia. They knew of a poor village made even poorer because the owner of the one well there refused to let anyone use it. Women, desperate to provide water for their families, had little choice but to strap their babies to their backs, walk a kilometer to the nearest water source, and carry their heavy cargo the distance back. Crying out to their gods for relief and hearing nothing, the women blamed their sins in a previous life for the hardship they were now facing. Hopelessness permeated this village until one of its residents accepted Christ and told others about a forgiving God. Somewhat cynically, the villagers wondered if this God could meet their basic need for water. The answer came from someone in America—money given in Jesus' name for a new well. The inscription above this well speaks of the Living Water found in John's Gospel. Faithful support through the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering® will send others to introduce the well that will never run dry.
