

Compassion

Sunday Morning, August 23, 2015

Introduction:

I. Religious Self-Righteousness

Luke 10: 25 – 29

To love your neighbor is to have _____ for others as Jesus did. Our neighbor is our _____. The Lawyer thought his neighbor was only his _____.

II. Religion Does Not Make Us Compassionate

Luke 10: 30 – 35

The Samaritan had compassion.

He did six things:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

The Samaritan...

1. Paid _____ Matthew 14:14
2. Had _____ Matthew 5:7
3. Took _____ John 3:18

III. Religion Does Not Necessarily Produce Compassion

Luke 10: 36 – 37

Reflection Questions:

Are you neighborly?

---

Are you compassionate?

---

Have you shown compassion lately?

---

Conclusion:

How _____ Are We As Christians and Servants of Christ to _____ on Those Who Are _____ in Society, or Anyone Who Is Our _____?
