

The Exchanged Life! – Part 2

Let the Living Waters Flow

Sunday Morning, July 30, 2017

“There is a life and there is a life more abundant, this is the exchanged life.” Dr. Victor Raymond Edmond, 4th President of Wheaton College

John 10:10

“...only total abandonment to God could lead us to experiencing God’s fullest blessings.”
Dr. Victor Raymond Edmond, 4th President of Wheaton College

John 7:37 – 38

If we thirst for the _____ life, drink in or _____ Jesus and if we rely or _____ on His Word from the depths of our heart (_____), then His truth will _____ out of _____ like living water.

“Every ambition for self was now gone. The pure flame of love burned it like a blazing fire would burn a moth.”
Samuel Logan, Commissioner of the Salvation Army

“...(I) found the joy and peace of the _____ _____ of the Holy Spirit.”

William P. Nicholson, Irish Evangelist

Isaiah 58:11

The _____ and _____ of God _____ like a spring in our lives no matter what _____ we face!

“When we know Christ’s heart _____ and _____ by the _____ of His Spirit, we _____ the outflow of _____.”
Hudson Taylor, Missionary to China

John 4: 7 – 42

1. Jesus was _____ to the Samaritan Woman at the Well.
2. As a result, she _____ the Living Water of Christ that He offered to her.
3. As a natural effect of her _____ her old adulterous life for a slate wiped clean life in Jesus, the Living Water that Jesus gave her _____ of her with the truth of salvation and she _____ to the men in town.

4. While she is out witnessing in town, Jesus' disciples return and Jesus with his foreknowledge of what they are about to witness, takes a few moments to teach His disciples a lesson about truly living for Him. He informs them that there is a great _____ ripe and _____ to be picked and He wants _____ to go _____ it.

John 4:38

John 4:42

Witnessing to others and letting the works of God overflow out of you to others demonstrates "The Exchanged Life".