

Interestingly so, a Commissioner of the Salvation Army by the name of Samuel Logan said,

“Every ambition for self was now gone. The pure flame of love burned it like a blazing fire would burn a moth.”

Consider also what the Irish Evangelist, William P. Nicholson said,

“...(I) found the joy and peace of the overflowing fullness of the Holy Spirit.”

When we are overflowing with the fullness of the Holy Spirit living through our lives, then and only then, is every ambition for self, burned up.

Read what it says in (Isaiah 58:11)

The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought, and strengthen your bones; You shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.

The peace and joy of God overflows like a spring in our lives no matter what situation we face!

Finally, this quote from Hudson Taylor, a pioneer missionary to China:

“When we know Christ’s heart personally and intimately by the outflow of His Spirit, we experience the outflow of living waters.”

Now let’s look at a very special event that exemplifies the outflow of living waters through the exchanged life we learn about in (John 4: 7 – 42).

7 A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give Me a drink.”

8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

9 Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, “How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”
